CLEVELAND PLAY HOUSE ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR NEW SESSION OF KEYBANK CPH COLLEGE

Cleveland, OH – September 10, 2014 – Cleveland Play House (CPH) is now accepting applications for the 2014-15 session of KeyBank CPH College, with first classes beginning September 20.

“Each and every year, our KeyBank CPH College students discover entire worlds that didn’t exist for them before they walked through the theatre doors, states CPH Director of Education Pamela DiPasquale. “Whether they are working with a master artist, engaged in a theatre production or simply eating lunch with a new friend, our students are experiencing first hand that diversity can also mean commonality.”

KeyBank CPH College introduces high school students to the circle of artists creating professional theatre at CPH. By participating in a variety of arts education experiences, students will discover the powerful impact theatre plays in their community and life. Monthly sessions include master workshops lead by CPH guest artists, resident teaching artists, and staff. Students are also able to attend CPH’s mainstage productions and gain a personal appreciation for the process of performing and producing theatre. This program is generously funded by KeyBank.

About Cleveland Play House

Founded in 1915, Cleveland Play House is America’s first professional regional theatre. Throughout its rich history, Cleveland Play House has remained dedicated to its mission to inspire, stimulate and entertain diverse audiences in Northeast Ohio by producing plays and theatre education programs of the highest professional standards. It has produced more than 100 world and/or American premieres, and over its long history more than 12 million people have attended over 1,300 CPH productions. Cleveland Play House looks toward its centennial while performing in three state-of-the art venues at PlayhouseSquare in downtown Cleveland.

The Ohio Arts Council helped fund Cleveland Play House with state tax dollars to encourage economic growth, educational excellence and cultural enrichment for all Ohioans. We also thank the residents of Cuyahoga County for supporting Cleveland Play House through Cuyahoga Arts & Culture.
