TELL YOUR OWN EMPEROR'S GROOVY NEW CLOTHES !!!!!

Once upon a time, a long time ago, lived a kid who was fed up with the way the Emperor was running things. The Emperor had become obsessed with (noun) and had forgotten how to (verb) his kingdom. Even worse, everyone in the kingdom thought the Emperor was (adjective) . So the kid decided to take action and go visit the Emperor in his (noun) . On the way, the kid met a shyster who looking to find an opportunity to (verb) someone. After telling the man about the Emperor's obsession the kid continued on to (verb) the Emperor. Upon arriving the kid soon realized that although the Emperor had gotten carried away with his obsession he was still a (adjective) Emperor. Unfortunately the Shyster had already began to develop a (noun) to trick the Emperor. Since the kid had befriended the Shyster he didn't know what to do. The Shyster convinced the Emperor that he was going to make him a (noun) that was invisible to everyone except for the most (adjective) people . After getting the Emperor to pay thousands of (plural noun) to him the Shyster got to work pretending to make the invisible (noun) . On the day of his Birthday the Emperor went out to display his invisible (noun) and everyone pretended to see it so that they would be considered one of the (adjective) people in the kingdom. The kid however knew better and revealed the Shyster's plan. Although the Emperor and everyone in the kingdom was angry, they learned an important lesson. That no matter what, it is not what one owns that matters but what one does!
